Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Eagle Scouts of America are trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent; and,

Whereas, Clay Campbell, a young man from Madison, South Dakota, has been participating in scouting, earning many merit badges and skill awards in a myriad of areas; and,

Whereas, Clay's Eagle Service project was building an arbor at the Smith-Zimmerman State Museum at Dakota State University; and,

Whereas, Following graduation from Madison High School, Clay plans to go into the ministry; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the major accomplishments in the lives of South Dakota's young people:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 4, 2004, as in South Dakota.

CLAY CAMPBELL DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
